Nineteen New Jersey Lottery Instant Games Will Expire Along With Their Prizes on August 1st

TRENTON (July 06, 2017) – New Jersey Lottery players are advised to check their instant game tickets against the list below to determine whether their game is soon expiring along with its associated prizes. The games listed below and their associated unclaimed prizes will expire by end of business on August 1.

The Lottery adds new instant games to its product lineup on a regular basis and as new games begin older games end. When a game is ended by the Lottery its players have one year from the game end date to claim their prizes otherwise the winnings will be forfeited.

New Jersey Lottery players are advised that August 1st is the last day for claiming any prizes associated with the instant games listed below.
